

Pennworth is the benefits department you don't have to build.

We help employers with 20–99 employees manage their employee benefits.

Pennworth handles the work, provides the technology and helps you make better decisions all year.

So benefits stop taking over your day.

THE PROBLEM

The Cost of Doing Nothing

Without the right support system, benefits become harder than they should be. You risk:

- Paying more than you need to without a clear strategy
- Too much time spent on benefits
- Compliance mistakes that create unnecessary risk
- Employees confused about their benefits
- Missing opportunities to hire and keep great employees
- Renewal season becoming a yearly headache
